2.

Handwritten musical notation on a grand staff. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef. The music consists of several measures with various note values, including quarter and eighth notes, and rests. There are some markings above the notes, possibly indicating dynamics or articulation. The notation is somewhat sketchy and appears to be a preliminary draft.

Ten blank musical staves, each consisting of five horizontal lines, arranged vertically down the page. They are intended for further musical notation.
