Handwritten musical score for "The Rose Tree". The score is written in a handwritten style with some corrections and annotations. It includes staves for four brass instruments (trumpets and trombones) and a string section. The brass parts are marked with dynamics like "mf" and "ff", and articulations like "cresc." and "poco accel.". The string part is marked with "mf" and "cresc. & accel.". The score is written in a handwritten style with some corrections and annotations.

Handwritten musical score for "The Blue Danube" by Johann Strauss II. The score is written on five staves. The top staff is for the "slide whistle" and includes a tempo change to "Timp." and a "gliss." instruction. The second staff is for the "f marc." (forte marcato) section. The third and fourth staves are for the "Gl. sp." (Glockenspiel) and include "cresc." (crescendo) and "pizz." (pizzicato) markings. The bottom staff is for the "f marc." section. The score is written in 3/4 time and features various musical notations including notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

The image shows a handwritten musical score for piano. The top staff features a complex melodic line with various dynamic markings: pp cresc., at ff, ff, dim, and cresc.. The bottom staff is a diagram illustrating the concept of playing A-major chords across the entire register. It consists of a horizontal line with six numbered circles (1 through 6) placed below it. Above the circles are the following chord notations: (1) A major, (2) A major, (3) A major (with a handwritten note "(2104-112)" above it), (4) A major (with a handwritten note "7/8" above it), (5) A major, and (6) A major (with a handwritten note "3/1" above it). A large diagonal watermark "PROMOTION" is visible across the bottom half of the page.

Symphony № 12 is a surrealistic orchestral fantasy inspired by the feelings and visions stirred up by reading chapter 9 of Moses I (Genesis). The giant (sin-flood) forces of Nature (created by cosmic happenings?), the harmony of the Rainbow, the fertility instincts, drunkenness, the long age of Noah, superhuman? extraterrestrial? thus cursing the one who saw his "outerspace fallos"...? etc... All these events in ^{the} moment of ^{the} inspiration motivated this major - minor complex tonal free pulsative improvisational happening ending in an optimistic A - major. The work also perhaps gave an outlet & polarisation for much destructive instincts (of tiredness, boredom or indignacy...) felt in the summer of 1986. One more Orchestral Diary sheet synthesised and organised the chaotic brainstorm the hard previous season (and why not the thought of the next similar one coming) of a multitude of repertoire almost mental-balance disturbingly again had caused... These flashbaking brainstorm-visions of the claustrophobic-schizophrenic mind of the "absolute - ~~man~~ - always - instant - reading - into - notation - paranoid" composer were used to give positive & creative energy for catching these sounds & visions in musical colors of orchestral registers, not fearing to dream in new-romantic & postexpressionistic atmospheres
