Some instructions:

1. The horizontal arrow means that the process from one expression to another should happen gradually, and as seamlessly as possible

2. Stemless notes indicate the sounding tone in natural harmonics

3. A tone played on the keyboard, dampened by finger or palm is indicated with the following noteheads:

4. A tone played directly on the piano strings is indicated with the following noteheads:

5. Arrows pointing vertically up or down indicate the direction of a chromatic glissando; the width of the glissandi are unprecise

6. The dashed crescendo line indicates slowing down the density of a trill; the dashed diminuendo line indicates accelerating the density of a trill:
